---NEWS ADVISORY---

(March 20, 2008)--- As we approach Easter, Mayor Eddie A. Perez and his wife Maria extend warm holiday wishes to families in Hartford and around the world on this Holy Weekend on the Christian Calendar. Good Friday is the Christian commemoration of the death of Jesus Christ. It is observed on the Friday before Easter, the day Christians celebrate their belief in Jesus' resurrection.

Mayor Perez says, "For many people around the world, Easter is a time for renewal, reflection and celebration. Hartford is a welcoming city where diversity is cherished and encouraged. This is a joyous time!"
